

Please reconsider the proposal allowing broad-band communications over power lines. The noise level from the existing power line technology is bad enough now to disrupt communications without adding more interference.

Thank you for your consideration.